BY LIBRARIANS FOR LIBRARIANS

WHO Is iREAD?

A project of the Illinois Library Association (ILA). Librarians are both creators and users of the program, while renowned illustrators create artwork for our materials.

WHERE Is iREAD?

Developed by the Illinois Library Association, the program is adopted in other states including Alaska, California, Connecticut, Iowa, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Oregon, Rhode Island, Southwest Kansas Library System, Washington, as well as the Northern Lights Library System in Canada, and worldwide by the Department of Defense for libraries on military bases. iREAD is implemented in thousands of individual libraries across the nation.

Bring iREAD to YOUR library!

iREAD is open to all libraries and does not require membership. We also offer statewide partnerships featuring exclusive discounts, custom state-specific solutions, and additional implementation and learning resources. Visit iREADprogram.org or email us at iREAD@ila.org for more information.

WHY Should I Use iREAD?

iREAD is run by ILA, a nonprofit entity. There are NO membership fees, NO contracts, and NO commitments necessary for individual libraries to participate. We have a proven track record of success since 1981! iREAD, as a self-supporting effort, is committed to focusing on solutions and developing resources for easy implementation of summer reading for libraries of all sizes.

But don't take our word for it . . .

“ Being the only staff member, iREAD helps lighten my load by providing imaginative & fun plans, ideas and resources!! I appreciate everyone involved!

Julie R.
Shawneetown Public Library, IL ”

“ iREAD makes planning summer reading enjoyable because they provide SO much in the way of support. I wouldn't be able to do SLP without iREAD!

Alex H.
Manson Public Library, IA ”

“ The iREAD program makes summer reading easy because the Guide offers comprehensive ideas, images and overall support for our library.

Beth T.
Exeter Public Library, RI ” “ iREAD has made summer reading planning so much easier. All the themes are incredibly versatile, so we are able to use them to fit the specific needs of our community.

Ellen F.
Naperville Public Library, IL ”
